

SENATOR COORDSEN: That's the sense of the resolution. The resolution applies only to those still listed as missing in action or prisoners in Vietnam era.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, but we mean the future return of remains...

SENATOR COORDSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...rather than future remains being returned.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Any other discussion on the Coordsen amendment? Seeing none, do you wish to close, Senator Coordsen? He waives closing. We will now vote on the Coordsen amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Coordsen's amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: The amendment is adopted.

CLERK: I have nothing further on the resolution, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: Any discussion on the resolution? Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, Senator Coordsen, Senator Preister, I'm not trying to nitpick here but we all know how sometimes reporters will pick up something that was passed in a resolution by a Legislature and use it as a basis for ridicule. What I would like to see us do in the second resolve is change this construction from "future remains" to "all remains returned in the future". You know, strike "future" so if somebody could hold on...hold the fort, I will put that in right quick.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Well, Senator Chambers talked about nothing, he claimed, if I'm going to talk about anything, I would have to
